One Vision Housing future proof retirement homes

The Sovini Group's collaborative relationship with One Vision Housing's Assets Team is investing to future-proof existing retirement schemes to make them more suitable for dementia sufferers and more attractive to live in. Using the group's innovative Sustainability Index the potential of the existing stock is being maximised to meet the support needs of Independent Living customers with modern, attractive, high-performing properties. This investment project will deliver a dramatic improvement to the lives of customers and the viability of neighbourhoods.

Judges' comment

This is a forward looking project which takes into account the future needs of an ageing population. It brings buildings back into use with a new purpose.
